Flicks in the Sticks returns on Saturday March 3rd with "HOOK", a film for all the family with an impressive cast list. Starring Dustin Hoffman as Captain Hook, Robin Williams as Peter Banning (a grown-up who has forgotten the adventures he had as Peter Pan), Julia Roberts as Tinkerbell, Bob Hoskins as Smee and Maggie Smith as the now elderly Wendy.

Peter and his wife Moira have two children and the family flies to London to visit Moira's Grandmother, Wendy.

Whilst there, the children are kidnapped and it takes Tinkerbell to get Peter back to Neverland to attempt to rescue the children from Hook who has not only captured them but tried to capture their hearts too. But is Peter up to the challenge now that he's older?

Certainly his parenting skills are suspect from the outset and he doesn't exactly inspire the Lost Boys any more. Will he relearn the magic of Neverland and defeat the pirates? Expect a clever storyline and swashbuckling action supported by the usual "Flicks" popcorn, icecream, tea, coffee and biscuits all for the price of £5.

Doors open at 6.30 and the film rolls at 7.00.

Tickets available from the Post Office and Beynon's Garage.

Presented by New Life, profits will go to the Village Hall.
